

"It matters..."

It matters, not the time

Nor the ink

But the ocean of knowledge

Which one drinks?

It matters, not the storm

Nor the wind

But the house (Quality)

Which one builds

It matter, not the teacher

Nor the school

But the discipline

And its rule.

It matter, not the player

Nor the game

But the play (Quality)

And its fame

It matter, not the man

Nor his face

But the god

And his grace
